NOTES

Well, after the big freeze and the snow-go we look forward to our first game in twenty one days when we today entertain Bolton Wanderers who themselves are struggling to escape the lower reaches of the Division and at present are only two points and two places above us, so everyone at the club is aware of the importance of winning today's game.

Unfortunately for us the bad weather has come just at the wrong time as we were playing well, being unbeaten in our last four games. In fact the game at Wigan on 3rd January is the best we have played all season. Without actual games we have had very little chance to do much as the training grounds were all in the same condition as the playing surfaces. We have only been able to do restrictive training in the gym.

On the injury front Mike Astbury is still having trouble with his wrist and we can see no light at the end of the tunnel yet. Chris Evans has been ill the last two weeks with a mouth and throat infection. Gary Morgan's broken foot is still causing him a lot of pain and he will be at least another month off the field. Scott Clifford, Garry Macdonald and Allan Smith are all continuing with light training.

We have extended the loan on Colin Walker for another month so he will be with us until the end of February.

Finally a word about goalkeeper Wayne Baker who has come in from non-League Whitby Town to help us over our injury crisis and has looked better with every game he has played.

WELCOME . . .

SIMON FARNWORTH (Goalkeeper) – The former England Schoolboy International is in his fourth season in the Bolton senior squad after graduating from the junior ranks. Made his debut in the League against Wimbledon in the first match of the 1983-84 season.

MIKE SALMON (Goalkeeper) – In July Bolton paid Stockport County £18,000 for the former Blackburn Rovers goalkeeper, the fee being set by a transfer tribunal. The 6ft 2ins. Leyland-born player made his League debut for the Wanderers against Swindon Town on the opening day of the season.

PHIL NEAL (Defender) – A veteran of more than 700 senior games, the former England full-back picked up a record eighth League Championship medal in May, five months after leaving Liverpool where he spent 11 glorious years. Fifty international caps plus European Cup and League/Milk Cup winners medals make the Bolton player/manager, who began his career with Northampton Town, the most decorated player in the domestic game today.

JIMMY PHILLIPS (Defender) – Another product of the Bolton youth academy, the local-born defender has made the majority of his appearances at left back but has also played in the centre of defence and in midfield.

MARK CAME (Defender) – Made an enormous leap from North West Counties League football to the professional ranks when he joined Bolton from Winsford United in April 1984. The solid central defender, who made his Wanderers League debut in September that same year, has been a regular in the first team squad ever since.

DAVE SUTTON (Defender) – The tall, blond central defender joined Bolton from Huddersfield Town in the summer of 1985 for a £12,000 fee. He was a member of two promotion-winning teams at Leeds Road after moving from Plymouth where he started his career.

DEREK SCOTT (Defender) – The most versatile player in the Bolton squad. The former England Schoolboy International, who hails from Gateshead, played in almost every position during his 11 seasons with Burnley, making his League debut in the First Division. Joined Bolton in June 1985 for a £20,000 fee. He is currently making his way back to action after a chest injury in the opening game of the season.

MARK WINSTANLEY (Defender) – In his first season as a regular member of the Bolton senior squad, the young central defender made his League bow at Bournemouth in March last season.

JULIAN DARBY (Defender) – Can play in defence or midfield, the Bolton-born youngster came onto the scene last season when he made his League debut against Blackpool in March.

ASA HARTFORD (Midfield) – Capped 50 times by his country, the former Scottish International was considered in the "veteran" stages when he joined Bolton in the summer of 1985 from Norwich, for whom he scored the winning goal in the Milk Cup Final that year. But he proved his durability by ending the season as Bolton's only ever-present. Still a great influence in midfield, the former West Brom, Manchester City, Everton and Nottingham Forest star is the Bolton captain.

WARREN JOYCE (Midfield) – The energetic, enthusiastic all-rounder is in his fifth season in the Bolton first team, after making his League debut at Carlisle in the Second Division in April 1983. He won representative honours as a schoolboy at cricket and rugby before turning to a career in football. Missed last season's Freight Rover Trophy Final through injury.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield) – A talented midfield player with a powerful shot, Steve is a penalty spot specialist. A Bolton regular for the past three seasons after graduating from the junior ranks of the club.

MARK GAVIN (Midfield) – Phil Neal's first transfer 'buy' in April 1986. Wanderers paid Carlisle United a small fee for the speedy former Leeds United winger, who is at home on either flank.

STEVE ELLIOTT (Striker) – Bolton paid Walsall £25,000 for the former Nottingham Forest apprentice who has had spells with Preston North End and Luton Town. Came to prominence at Deepdale after a £95,000 transfer. Scores goals himself but is also regarded as a provider for his attacking colleagues. Steve made his Bolton League debut against Swindon on the opening day of the season.

TONY CALDWELL (Striker) – It's been goals galore for the Salford-born striker since he made a sensational switch from non-League football in 1983 when he joined Bolton from local club Horwich RMI. He was a part-time professional when he set a club and Third Division record with five goals in a game against Walsall in September 1983 and has been Bolton's top scorer three seasons in a row.

GEORGE OGHANI (Striker) – Another capture from non-League football, George joined Bolton from Hyde United in October 1983. Loves to score goals and a sparkling spell towards the end of last season helped Wanderers along the way to their Freight Rover Trophy Final appearance at Wembley. Made his League debut at Wimbledon in January 1984.

Today we welcome Bolton Wanderers to Feethams for only their second League visit and fourth ever appearance here. On each of their three previous outings on Darlington soil they have dealt real body blows to the Quakers: twice putting us out of cup competitions and then stopping us setting a club record run of sixteen games without defeat! So today we hope to put an end to Bolton's record of winning the three previous Feetham's encounters.

We have to go back to 14th November 1960 to find the first meeting between the Quakers and the Trotters in the third round of the newly created Football League Cup competition. Crystal Palace and West Ham United had been beaten at Feethams in the first two rounds and now First Division Bolton Wanderers were the visitors. Cup fever swept Darlington and a capacity crowd of 21,023 packed Feethams that night for what all hoped would be another giant-killing act. That gate, of course, stands as the record attendance at Feethams and looks likely to stand for all time now that the ground regulations are much stricter. After only sixteen minutes the Quakers took the lead when Joe Rayment vollied in Keith Morton's cross and the Quakers hung on to that lead until the sixty ninth minute when keeper Colin Tinsley allowed Ray Hartle's free kick to slip through his hands for the equaliser. It looked as though a replay at Burnden Park was inevitable, until in the final minute Freddie Hill beat three players to put Doug Holden through for a last gasp winner for the Lancashire side.

It was not until last season, over a quarter of a century later, that Bolton Wanderers returned to Feethams – and then they came twice in eight days! First it was a Third Division game on Thursday 24th April last with Darlington fifteen games unbeaten in League and cup looking for a record breaking sixteenth game without defeat.

Alas it was not to be as George Oghani scored a late goal to give the Trotters victory and halt our great run. The following Thursday the crowd doubled to 3,771 for the semi-final of the Freight Rover Trophy and Bolton stepped out confidently after their win of the previous week. Darlington strengthened by the return of Carl Airey and John Green, both fit after injury, were stunned by an eight minute goal from George Oghani and then went two down in twenty five minutes when Tony Caldwell scored. Worse was to follow as we lost John Green and Dave McLean through injury and early in the second half Asa Hartford wrapped the game up for Bolton, who went on to beat Wigan Athletic in the Northern Final. However in the Wembley Final they lost 0-3 to Bristol City.

FAMOUS MANAGERS

Though his spells as manager of Leeds United and Bolton were not the most successful parts of a distinguished career in soccer, Jimmy Armfield was a popular and respected manager and though not in charge of any team at the moment he still renders excellent service as a competent newspaper and radio commentator.

Born in Denton near Manchester in 1933, Jimmy's family moved to Blackpool when he was still a boy and he attended a rugby-playing school. He emerged from that experience as a fine scholar, a good cricketer and an athletics champion. He also played football for a St. Peters Youth Club and Joe Smith, the then manager of Blackpool, spotted his promise as a right-winger and took him to Bloomfield Road. In due course he left on one side his chosen career as a teacher to sign professional.

It was on Christmas Day 1954 that Jimmy made his Football League debut in a 2-2 draw against Portsmouth in Division One. By that time he had moved from the front line to the left flank of the defence. He was still there when winning his first England Under-23 cap in 1957 and when captaining them in 1959.

Soon, however, he was swopping to right back and it was in that position that he won the first of his 43 caps against Brazil in Rio in May 1959. He captained his country in more than half of these.

Though he lost his place to George Cohen in 1964 he was still in the England squad at the time of the 1966 World Cup win. Though Blackpool were relegated in 1967 he led them back to Division One in 1970. Then after 568 League games he retired in 1971.

It was at this stage that he took over as manager of Bolton after Jimmy Meadows had departed and Nat Lofthouse had had a spell as caretaker. He led them out of Division Three in 1972/3 and they were back in the middle of Division Two when he moved a few months later to inherit a troubled Leeds scene from Brian Clough.

He lifted them to fifth position in Division One in 1975/6 and they were still in the top ten when he was replaced by Jock Stein in 1978. Even during his playing days he had done a little work as a reporter and his mature balanced comments add to many readers and listeners enjoyment of the game today.

THE STRONG
FAVOURITE

— Sponsors of Darlington F.C. —

Not much activity in Division Three last weekend, but Bristol Rovers did extend their unbeaten away run to three games with a 2-2 draw at Bolton, who at least managed to end their unhappy run of four successive defeats. All four goals came in the second half with Tony Caldwell taking his season's tally to 14 for Bolton. Rovers have now won two and drawn one of their last three games at Burnden Park where Saturday's gate of 4,067 was the third lowest their this season, scant reward for the home club in managing to get their pitch playable on a day when only eight football League games were played.

Neither Bolton nor Bristol Rovers will be involved in next Saturday's fourth round F.A. Cup ties, but six clubs from Division Three went into the hat when the draw was made and one wonders just which clubs will emulate York's feat of reaching round five last season.

Chester City have home advantage over either Sheffield Wednesday or Derby, but they will probably be quite happy if they can get a replay against opposition that in either case gives nothing away. Walsall meanwhile take on Birmingham. They have two post-war F.A. Cup defeats at the hands of their Midland neighbours to try to revenge and the fact that former Walsall Chairman Ken Wheldon is now in charge at St. Andrews adds extra edge to the tie. Though Walsall beat First Division opposition in round three they too may have to be satisfied with earning a replay.

If Bristol City overcome Plymouth in this week's replay they have a lot on their plate in a fourth round tie at Highbury where Arsenal are unbeaten this season. Though they lost to York a couple of years ago Arsenal look too good at the moment to be on the wrong end of any giant-killing.

Swindon also have a tough assignment against Leeds, but the Yorkshiremen only just squeezed home against Telford with a late goal and Lou Macari is the sort of manager who has always relished a contest. This could just be a Third Division win.

Finally, the winners of Wigan and Gillingham take on Norwich or Huddersfield. Norwich are in Division One and Huddersfield have done well since changing manager a few weeks ago, but it could just be that either team is vulnerable against a Third Division team going all out on their own ground.

There will doubtless be a few surprises before the fourth round ties (full of either/ors at the moment after so many postponements) are settled, but whichever Third Division teams do battle through can be certain of having the whole Division behind them – and over the years Millwall, York, Norwich, Port Vale, Orient and Plymouth have all reached not only the last 16 but even the last 4 while members of Division Three.

RESERVES AT BLACKPOOL, Tuesday 20th January
We travelled over to Blackpool leaving arctic conditions in Darlington but it was very mild in Blackpool thus allowing the match to be played. It was a disappointing result losing 2-1 but the overall performance of the team was encouraging. We were caught square on two occasions and both times punished. We created a number of chances but we did not cash in, a combination of good goalkeeping and poor finishing being the reasons. In the side were three trialists making their debuts; Geoff Thompson, Steve Winn and Craig Graham, the latter two found the pace and the heavy conditions a bit of a problem but did come out of the game with credit. During the last fifteen minutes we camped in the Blackpool penalty area and had them under constant pressure but were only rewarded with a Gary May goal shortly before the final whistle. Another pleasing feature was the return of Garry Macdonald who played the last 45 minutes and he looked quite comfortable. Let us hope this is the beginning of a successful comeback.

Reserve side: Hogg, Hine, Wintersgill, May, Lloyd, Ward, Thompson (Macdonald), Tupling, Graham, Winn (Anderson), McPhee

Scorer: May Substitutes: Macdonald, Anderson
Jack Watson

QUAKERS

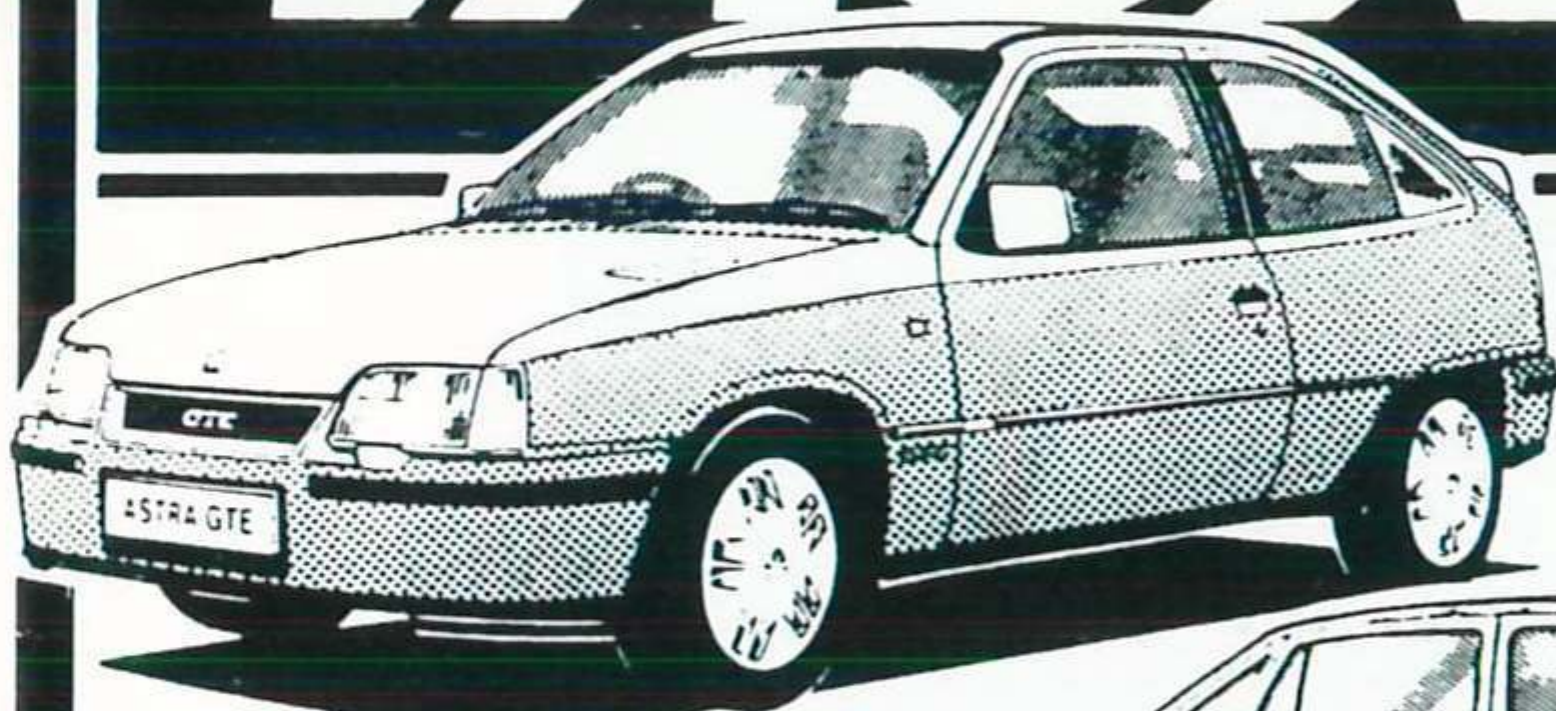

SEASON 1972/73

Another memory tester: this time it is the squad that started the 1972/73 season for the Quakers. Not a great season to remember as we ended bottom of Division Four and had to apply for re-election. How many faces can you put a name to? Answers at the foot of the page.

CYRIL SPEAKS.

I welcome everyone to Feetham for tonight's encounter with Bolton Wanderers. Our one all draw with Brentford although not disastrous was still not good enough as we must win our home games, luckily we have an early opportunity to make amends by going for the three points tonight.' On Sunday it was good to see Gary Macdonald making a welcome return, also Chris Evans after a lengthy lay off played in his first full match, now if we get Gary Morgan fit we are well on the way to having a full squad available.
